Precyse Solutions Appoints James Matas as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

New executive brings extensive health care industry experience

Wayne, PA — June 2, 2008 — Precyse Solutions, the leader in driving peak performance within Health Information Management (HIM) departments of hospitals and large health care providers, today announced the appointment of James Matas as its new Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Matas will be responsible for all of the company's financial functions as well as working closely with investors and clients.

Mr. Matas joins the company during the final stages of its recent recapitalization with Altaris Healthcare Partners and NewSpring Capital, two private equity firms which acquired the majority interest in Precyse from its initial founding investors and management.

Since 1999, Mr. Matas served as the CFO and COO of Investor Force Holdings, Inc., a technology start up that provides web-based software to the financial services industry. From 1988 to 1999, Mr. Matas worked in London and Brussels for IMS Health, Inc., a leader in health care information services for the pharmaceutical industry, where he served as the CFO for its international division. In this position, he oversaw international operations of $600 million in 65 countries. He also previously served as the VP of Finance for IMS America's Sales Management Division in New Jersey and worked at Foster Medical Corporation with Precyse's Chairman, CEO and Founder, Jeffrey Levitt.

"Jim is a high-energy leader with an extensive track record of assembling and leading high performing financial teams," said Robert Healy, Executive Vice President, Precyse Solutions. "Financially and strategically, this is a very exciting time for Precyse and we are glad to have Jim on board to assist with our growth in the years ahead."

Mr. Matas earned his B.S. in Accounting from The Pennsylvania State University and an MBA with a concentration in Pharmaceutical Marketing from Saint Joseph's University. He is also a Certified Public Accountant and a Registered General Securities Principal, holding various securities trading licenses.
