

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Precyse Solutions' Doyon and Servais to Speak at AHIMA

Wayne, PA, October 3, 2005- Precyse Solutions announced today that two Precyse colleagues will be featured speakers at the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) 77th National Convention and Exhibit being held October 15-20, 2005 in San Diego. AHIMA is the premiere association for Health Information Management (HIM) professionals.

Cindy Doyon, RHIA and Regional Vice President of the Western Region for Precyse and Cheryl Servais, MPH, RHIA and Vice President of Compliance and Chief Privacy Officer will be featured speakers at the six-day event.

Ms. Doyon and Ms. Servais are scheduled to present a workshop along with Suzanne Layne, RHIA, HIM Director of Hahneman University Hospital in Philadelphia, on "What if There Were No More 'Record Rooms'? - The Move to a Virtual HIM Department."

Additionally, Ms. Servais will conduct a workshop with Lydia Washington, MS, RHIA, CPHIMS of MD Anderson Cancer Center and Carol Ann Quinsey, RHIA, CHPS, Manager, Professional Practice Resources at AHIMA. The three-hour program will explore the legal components of the EHR and is entitled, "Defining Your Legal EHR – What's In, What's Out."

Jeff Levitt, founder, Chairman and CEO of Precyse Solutions, notes the enormous contribution Ms. Doyon and Ms. Servais have made to the HIM industry and to Precyse clients, "Cindy and Cheryl are veterans of this industry and our clients have benefited from their dedication to best practices, emerging technology and workflow design. We look forward to sharing our experiences and outcomes with this dynamic audience."

Once again, Precyse Solutions has elected to underwrite two undergraduate FORE (Foundation of Research and Education of AHIMA) Merit Scholarships. On an annual basis, Precyse invests in promoting the continuous education of future HIM professionals.
