Precyse Solutions Expands Advisory Council

Eight-member team will be instrumental in strategic initiatives.

Wayne, PA, January 26, 2006- Precyse Solutions announced today the addition of Terry Allison Rappuhn and Liz Alhand to the Precyse Advisory Council (PAC). Led by Board Member Alan Weinstein, and launched in May 2005, the PAC functions as a source of high-level input and advice on the strategic positioning and expansion of Precyse Solutions' service offerings. In addition, the PAC is a conduit for new business opportunities because of the extensive experience and networks developed by each of the council members.

Ms. Rappuhn, C.P.A., is a senior healthcare financial executive and senior healthcare consultant with over 25 years experience and has served in executive positions with Quorum Health Group, Inc. and Ernst & Young. Ms. Rappuhn is currently leading a healthcare coalition initiative driven by the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) and aimed at creating consumer-friendly billing and financial processes for healthcare providers and payers across the country.

Ms. Alhand, R.N., C.P. A., most recently served as Senior Vice President of Finance and Treasurer for Presbyterian Health System, a seven-facility health system with a large managed care organization and 2400 affiliated physicians, located in Albuquerque, NM. Prior to her position with Presbyterian, Ms. Alhand served in executive finance roles with SSM in St. Louis, Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth, and also worked as a senior healthcare manager for Ernst & Young.

Jeffrey Levitt, founder, Chairman and CEO of Precyse remarks on the influence Ms. Rappuhn and Ms. Alhand will have on the company, “Terry and Liz are exceptionally talented and experienced healthcare businesswomen. They understand healthcare provider operations and finance, and can help Precyse articulate the critical role that health information management (HIM) plays in the financial health of an institution and in the overall quality of care for the patient. This understanding positions them as key influencers of the future direction of Precyse.”
