Precyse Solutions Honored as “Technology Company of the Year”

Precyse Captures Prestigious Award at 16th Annual Enterprise Award Gala

Wayne, PA — November 20, 2008 — Precyse Solutions, the leader in driving peak Health Information Management (HIM) performance through technology and management solutions, was recognized by the Eastern Technology Council of Pennsylvania as “Technology Company of the Year” at the 16th Enterprise Award Gala held at the Kimmel Center. The Annual Gala honors the region’s top technology and life sciences companies and entrepreneurs. More than 1200 business leaders attended the black tie event celebrating achievement, innovation and success in the Greater Philadelphia region.

Jeffrey S. Levitt, founder and Chief Executive Officer of Precyse, accepted the award for Precyse. Levitt praised his management team and all of his colleagues at Precyse for their leadership, vision and innovative culture, “Awards are granted for the combined effort of many. At Precyse, I have been fortunate to work with a team motivated by delivering high quality and outstanding customer service. The team also prides itself on keeping Precyse ahead of the curve in our industry. This award is an acknowledgement of all of these talents coming together to produce an outstanding organization. As I look around and see the leaders of so many remarkable Philadelphia area companies, I am honored to be on this stage and to be leading this company.”

Dianne Strunk, CEO of the Eastern Technology Council remarked during the award presentations, “These companies and leaders have overcome the challenges of growing successful businesses, taking the necessary risks, making sacrifices and tough decisions. The 2008 Enterprise Award finalists and winners represent the strength of the Greater Philadelphia business community.”
